A WORD ABOUT FABRICS

Dye Lot Variations ~ Please note that fabric colors can vary slightly in different dye lots. These variations are kept within industry established tolerances, but if you require all treatments made from the same dye lot, it is best to order them at the same time.

Fabric Backlighting ~ Fabric appearance can vary when backlit by the sun. Hold fabric swatches up to the sun to view what they will look like in the window.

Fabric Care and Maintenance ~ Fabritec's custom fabric treatments may be dusted or lightly vacuumed with an upholstery attachment for everyday maintenance. If heavy cleaning is necessary, please consult a professional drapery cleaner.

CUSTOM FABRIC TREATMENT STANDARDS

High-quality interior fabric treatments are sewn to tolerances of 1/8". However, such treatments will not always hang in a precise, rigid size or shape. Instead, they will flow and gather in various ways depending on the type of treatment and the fabric used. This characteristic is what gives fabric treatments their distinctive, soft appearance, and it can cause their actual size to vary slightly.

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

Using our order forms virtually eliminates delay and error, the two main problems you will encounter when ordering soft window coverings... a huge benefit that will save you both time and money. Orders submitted without the benefit of our order form almost always experience unnecessary delays caused by playing phone tag until we are able to get all of the information needed to properly process the order. This hassle and waste of time disappears almost entirely when our forms are used. More important, organized, written communication dramatically reduces the potential for error. Mistakes, regardless of who makes them, are always very costly.

Because we want you to have the very best service we are capable of delivering, we have included specially designed order forms for each of our products in the Style Studio™ ~ Pricing & Ordering Guide Book. You can photocopy them for a continual supply, or download our interactive order forms from our web site at www.fabritecdesigns.com. If you prefer, we can also mail you the order forms.

If you need help using our order form for the first time (or anytime for that matter), do not hesitate to call our Sales Services Department toll free at 800.828.2500. If you need more forms, just ask. If you need anything, we're here to help.
